BATHS FOR BELLES.

Luxurious Appointments That Rival Those of the Fabled East.

The luxurious habits of New York women, says the Times, of that city, have grown nearly to rival the stories told of Poppæe who had bushols of fresh rose leaves picked every night to sleep on, and who took a daily morning bath of asses' milk to keep her skin soft and satiny. This is not quite the form that luxury takes here, but the amount of time and labor spent in the care of the person and the preservation of beauty is something calculated to surprise the peo-ple who give it no att ntion. The maid has eased to be sufficient attendance, h r time being more or less absorbed by the toilet and cognate matters, so the present plan is to engage the services of a woman who goes the day or hour, and whose cards "Ladies' Toilets." She has entire charge of the persons of her customers, and it is her duty to see that they are kept beautiful. Once or twice a week she rubs, combs, brushes, clips and cleans their hair, undertaking to keep it soft, sleek and thick. She manicures the nails, and uses and recommends such unguents as are warranted to keep the hands soft and white. She is a pedicure as well, and keeps her custompericure as well, and keeps her custom-ers' feet in as perfect condition as their hands. She has a thousand different devices to beautifying the face, and undertakes to ward off wring as by her rubbings and emollients. She trains eye-brows in the way they should go, re-moves superfluous hair, induces eye ashes to thicken and lengthen; keeps the skin smooth, fresh, and fair, and declares she can make the lips keep their bloom without the use of rouge. She looks after the figure, too, having a system called the "Swedish movement," by which she tightens up flaccid muscles, rounds thin throats and lean arms, and removes any of the dis-figurements of outline that have resulted from tight lacing and the abnormal tendency of flesh to any one part of the body.

She reduces flesh, too, and undertakes to develop symmetry. Her principal occupation, however, and the one best relished by her luxurious employers, is the massage bath. The tub is filled with warm water, quite as hot as can be comfortably borne, and into this is thrown a bath bag, consisting of a little sack of cheese-cloth, loosely filled with almond meal, powdered orris root, and grated soap. The water turns soft and milky as the contents of the bag dissolve, and the skin is rubbed with the bag, which makes a smooth, violet perfumed lather and leaves the flesh as soft as a child's The bather is rubbed dry and rolled in a big sheet of Turkish toweling, and then every inch of the body is carefully rubbed, kneaded and pinched with hands moistened in violet water, which impreg nates the skin with a faint, flower-like perfume. This takes the place of exercise in a great measure, and women who are too in-dolant or too busy to walk or practice in a symnasium find this keeps the skin in equally good condition and is a more lux-urious methol of setting the blood to circu-lating. Another funcy of these dainty

Senator Evarts has at command a sen-tentious humor that is rarely hinted at in such of his oblong periods as are most farminar to the public. A correspondent says that he remarked of Rhode Island that "it was settled by the Dutch; the Yankees settled the Dutch;" and of certain Christinns who landed in New England: "They praised God and fell on their knees—then hey fell upon the aborigines." The ex-Secretary also sent to Bancroft this letter:

"DEAR HANGROFF: I am very gi d to send you two products of my ness to dry -a barrel" "Lied Der vork and my sulogy on Ca ef-catice Cause. You's EVARTA."

apping the Hat. The custom of lifting the hat had its origin during the age of chivalry, when it was undomary for knights never to appear in subile except in full armor. It became a castom, however, for a knight, upon enteran assembly of friends, to remove his helmet, signifying: "I am safe in the presence of my friends." The age of chivalry passed away with the fifteenth century, but among the many acts of courtesy which can be traced back to its influence none is more direct in its origin than that of lifting the hat to acknowledge the presence of a friend.
